*Gerald D'Agostino Jr.
 (son of Gerry D'Agostino)*

Gerald D'Agostino Class of 1949

- Star athlete in baseball and football in the late 1940s
- Left NYS headed to Texas for short but significant teaching and coaching career
- Came back to Brockport in early 1960s as a professor and coach
- Took over as head football coach in 1964 and touched hundreds of lives
- Left coaching in 1973 with more football wins than any other coach in Brockport's history
- Continued teaching physical education
- Continued to raise families, both biological and extended
- Passed away in 1988 after a battle with cancer
- His legacy continues with great work of Irene and the D'Agostino Lectureship

Outstanding Service Award

James Fulton Emeritus

- Springfield College graduate who wisely was drawn to SUNY Brockport and never left
- Legendary swimming coach for 25 years
- Won almost 80 percent of meets and three of first five SUNYAC titles
- Highest honor in SUNYAC Swimming, recognizing outstanding athletic and academic performance, is named for him
- Coached nine All-Americans
- Fantastic career in cross country as well for 10 years and dedicated assistant football coach/trainer at the start of the program
- Community icon
- Physical Education professor for five decades
- Like so many of the College's coaches from the 1940s, 50s, 60s, and 70s, he is revered by his former athletes, many of whom have gone on to successful teaching and coaching careers at the high school and collegiate levels

Citation of Appreciation Irene Grandits D'Agostino Class of 1950

- Taught locally and in Texas before moving back to Brockport in 1962 with husband Gerry '49
- Regional/national level swimmer FOREVER
- Records/medals/accomplishments are unlimited
- Qualified to compete in Senior Olympic National Championships
- Community servant involved in numerous causes such as the Morgan Manning House
- Chaired 1950's 50-year reunion
- Established the Coach D Lectureship in honor of her husband
- Charlie Bertino, who played football for Irene's husband, said to one of Irene's four children, Anne Marie: "Your Dad could not have been the man he was without your mother ... she was the pillar."
- Raised her own four children and several "adopted" young men in her house on Adams Street and has sustained her husband's legacy through tireless efforts over the past 13 years

July 2002

More than 100 alumni and friends in the Buffalo area gathered at Ralph Wilson Stadium, home of the Buffalo Bills. Dinner in a luxury suite, tours of the press box, locker room, and field house were a big part of the night. The highlight for many was living out a childhood dream by playing impromptu games on the artificial turf.

Greig Mitchell accepts position as VP Administration and Finance.
