In compliance with the Federal Family Education Rights and Privacy Act of 1974 (FERPA), The College at Brockport is prohibited from providing certain information from your student records to a third party, such as information pertaining to grades, billing and payment, tuition and fee assessment, and financial aid (including scholarships, grants, work-study, or loan amounts). This restriction applies, but is not limited to, your parent(s) and/or step-parent(s), your spouse, or a sponsor. Further information on FERPA regulations can be found at www.brockport.edu/parents/ferpa.html.

Students may grant The College at Brockport permission to release information concerning their student records to a third party (including parents, step-parents, etc.) by submitting this completed Consent to Release Student Information Authorization form. You must identify each individual person to whom you wish to grant access/information regarding your student records.

- The specified information will be made available only if requested by the authorized third party; that person must be able to provide The College at Brockport with the appropriate identifying information (e.g., SS#) when requested.
- The College does not automatically send information to a third party.

Pursuant to the Family Educational Rights and Privacy Act of 1974, I, the above named student, hereby give my consent for The College at Brockport to release information to the individual(s) listed below. In addition, I authorize these individuals to speak on my behalf regarding my account.
