

OTHER COURSES OF INTEREST TO GRADUATE STUDENTS

The College at Brockport sponsors graduate courses whose interdisciplinary content is applicable to students in many programs.

PRO 510 Grants Writing Seminar (B). Is a basic, practical, how-to course for the beginning grants writer. Includes types of funding sources, how to identify funding sources, and how to write foundation and government proposals. Requires writing a brief sample proposal. Appropriate for all majors. For information, contact the grants development director, (585) 395-5118. 1 Cr. Spring.