In its report the Ad Hoc Committee on Scheduling recommended that the senate undertake a debate and straw poll on three various possibilities for scheduling courses at Brockport. This came in the form below:

“Recommendation 2: The Executive Committee shall present the following resolution to the Senate:

Whereas, in order to determine the true sense-of-the-Senate on the issue of Course Scheduling,

Be it Resolved that: the Senate shall engage in a full and complete discussion of the advantages and disadvantages of the 3 models below. Following that discussion there will be three straw-poll votes taken, without further discussion between those votes. There will be a vote held for each of the following three models to determine whether or not that model is acceptable.

1. The current schedule, known as 60/90/15. There would be no change to the schedule we are currently using.
2. Model 50/75/15(b) from the Task Force report.
3. Model 60/85/15(b) from the Task Force report.

Each of the three votes will be held independently of each other. Any Senator may vote in support of any or all three of the models, or may vote against the acceptability of any or all of the models. The results of the three straw-polls will then be forwarded to the President.”

The executive committee has decided to directly adopt the recommendations of the Ad Hoc Committee on Scheduling as they pertain to the “Debate and Straw Poll” and place these items on the agenda for the January 31, 2011 meeting of the College Senate. This means that on January 31 there will first be a debate and second a straw poll of the full senate as per the scheduling options above. The straw poll will not result in a recommendation; instead it will serve to inform the Provost and President of the College at Brockport as to sentiments of the College Senate with regard to scheduling.
