

John R. Halstead Family Leadership in Higher Education Award Application

The John R. Halstead Family Leadership in Higher Education Award is awarded annually at The College at Brockport. The scholarship is awarded to one student who demonstrates strong academic achievement and leadership skills through service to the College and/or community. The recipient must also show genuine commitment to a career in higher education and further studies in student development.

This $1,000 award is made possible through the generosity of Dr. John R. and Mrs. Kathleen A. Halstead. .

To be considered for the John R. Halstead Family Leadership in Higher Education Award, applicants must:

- Be entering their junior or senior year at The College at Brockport during the semester following receipt of the award. Applicants must also have an overall GPA of 3.0 or higher.
- Include a separate page listing any extracurricular activities, including community service, that the applicant has been involved in during his/her college career. Indicate appointed or elected leadership positions as appropriate.
- Write a 500-word essay responding to the following question, and attach the essay to the application form. Essay Topic: How have your academic studies, leadership experiences and extra-curricular activities contributed to your personal and professional development and enabled you to demonstrate commitment to higher education and student development?
Please note: You should NOT try to discuss every course you have had or extra-curricular activity you have participated in. Be selective, focus on those that have helped shape your future involvement in the field of higher education, and explain their benefits for yourself as clearly as you can without exceeding 500 words.
- Include two letters of recommendation from individuals other than relatives.
- Return the completed application form, essay, activities page, letters of recommendation and financial aid information release form, to the Assistant VP for Student Affairs Office, Allen 6th Floor, by February 15.

Please note, students may not receive this award more than once in their college career.
