NEW! WINTER SESSION '12 TUTORING

The Student Learning Center (SLC) will offer tutoring services during the 2012 Winter Session, January 3rd through January 19th. Writing tutors will be available daily. Tutors for specific courses will work by appointment or will have set weekly hours. These hours will be posted on our website. To request a tutor, please stop in, call, or visit our website.

Writing Tutoring at the SLC

Writing tutors can help you talk through an assignment, articulate a thesis, focus your paragraphs, improve transitions, identify confusing passages or mistakes in grammar and punctuation, and cite your sources correctly. Please call to schedule an appointment to meet with a writing tutor.

Content Tutoring: *Tutors are available for ASL, Spanish, Nutrition, and Biostatistics.

Tutors will help you develop study strategies for specific courses—including time management, textbook reading, lecture note taking, and test preparation. They will explain course content, encourage you to read course syllabi closely and meet with professors, and help you come up with a plan for daily, independent study.

Tutoring will be available on a limited basis based on the availability of qualified tutors. Some tutors will work by appointment while others will have scheduled, weekly hours. Please call or stop in to request a tutor.
