

The Buffalo-Rochester Consortium
Practicum Partnership Program (PPP)
Fellowship Application

The Greater Rochester Collaborative of Nazareth College and SUNY Brockport and the University of Buffalo School of Social Work have developed a consortium to train leaders in social work practice with the aging population. Funded by the John A. Hartford Foundation and administered through the New York Academy of Medicine's Social Work Leadership Institute, This Practicum Partnership Program (PPP) utilizes an innovative educational model through the provision of competency-based gerontological social work education featuring integrative seminars and field placements offering a rotational design. Agency-based field instructors are active stakeholders in the PPP, as contributing experts, teachers, and collaborators and by sharing resources to assist Fellows develop leadership skills and gerontological social work practice competencies.

- GRC MSW PPP Fellows receive a $1500 participation stipend over the course of two semesters.
- Students completing a PPP foundation level fellowship are eligible re-apply for a PPP fellowship for the concentration year field placement.
- Upon completion, all PPP fellows receive a certificate of completion issued by the John A. Hartford Foundation and New York Academy of Medicine.
