Assumes MTH 112 and foreign language will be waived

PEP 458 – Internship in Exercise Physiology – (6 credits) will be granted to the student at the end of the first year of the DPT program at Upstate Medical University if the student has met the requirement of a C or better in each course (during first summer and first year at Upstate). A minimum of six of the required courses during that year contain an integrated clinical component.