Administrative Appointments

Virginia Commonwealth University

One of the nation's top 50 public research universities, Virginia Commonwealth University is an urban institution enrolling nearly 32,000 diverse students across 13 schools and one college. VCU is focused on student success at all levels, unparalleled innovation through research, a university-wide commitment to human health, and effective engagement with the communities it serves. VCU is one of only 28 universities with an academic medical center to hold both Carnegie Foundation's Very High Research Activity status and Community Engagement Classification.

Current Advisor to the President for Strategic Initiatives

Primary Responsibilities: Work with the president, and his office and cabinet, especially the vice president for finance and budget. Responsible for helping to implement and ensure coordination between two institutional initiatives: 1) development of and conversion to a hybrid-RCM university budget model ($1.2B); and 2) redesign of the university's human resources system for classified staff, and administrative and professional faculty members. Serve on the New Budget Model Steering Committee and as the liaison to academic unit administrators. Guide the policy development process for the budget redesign; lead and collaborate with the vice president for university relations on strategic communications related to the budget redesign. Conduct testing and analysis of budget model performance during development and implementation phases. Work collaboratively with the university Office of Human Resources to provide experienced management perspective on HR system modernization under VCU's Tier III status, including progressive leave policies, cascading goals, career communities, and effective performance management. Work with offices of the president, provost, and other vice presidents to prepare and support university senior leadership in effective change management as the university pursues concurrent planning efforts, including the Budget and HR Redesign, new strategic plan, and research master plan.

Major Accomplishments:

- Worked with University Budget Office, and the New Budget Model Steering Committee and Task Force to design and approve a new university budget model on schedule for FY18
- Developed plans for budget model implementation and stakeholder engagement to inform model refinement
- Initiated and held meetings with the dean, fiscal officer and other leaders of all major academic units to provide guidance about and solicit input into the design of the budget model
- Researched budget model designs at peer and other institutions to inform model policy and process decisions
- Partnered with Budget Office team to design and test alternative budget model elements and scenarios
- Designed process to finalize work of UBR Task Force and coordinate Steering Committee action
- Led development of University Budget Redesign (UBR) strategic communications plan, website and materials for use with the Board of Visitors, senior leadership and academic unit leaders.
- Collaborated with VP for University Relations to develop key UBR-related communications for president
- Collaborated with Faculty Senate Executive Committee to create a draft definition of T&R faculty for use in employee reclassification process; currently designing implementation plan to begin in late 2017.
- Researched governance structures and employee classification policies at peer, Virginia and select national institutions to inform HR Redesign policymaking
- Proposed and designed change management training for all university senior leaders

2010-2016 Dean, School of Social Work

The School is one of the oldest and largest social work programs in the nation; one of approximately 70 stand-alone units nationally. It is one of 13 schools and colleges at VCU, a public urban research university of 32,000 students. The School offers undergraduate, masters and doctoral degrees to a diverse student body of approximately 800 including VCU's largest graduate program. An annual budget of $9.2 million supports 42 full-time tenure-track and term faculty, 50 adjunct faculty, 72 affiliates, 21 wage and 16 classified staff employees, and 24 graduate assistants.

Primary Responsibilities: Chief academic and administrative officer, supervising all aspects of the School; reported directly to the Provost. Organizational structure required performance of all dean- and department chair-level responsibilities. Direct reports included 42 tenure- and non-tenure earning faculty and 5 classified staff members, and an administrative team of 2 associate deans, 5 program directors, director of finance, director of human resources, senior director of development, and director of communications. Oversight of 3 academic programs, including seven graduate-level dual degree and certificate programs and a hybrid-online masters program. Represented the School within the university and with external constituencies.

Major Accomplishments:

Faculty Recruitment, Retention and Support

- Hired 35 new faculty members including 16 tenure-track: 24 women; 9 self-identified members of racial/ethnic groups apart from white, non-Hispanic; 7 self-identified LGBTQIA.
- Increased proportion of under-represented minority faculty.
- Hired AASWSW (national academy) member into Samuel S. Wurtzel Endowed Chair in Social Work.
- Hired four University “excellence funds” faculty members with funded research agendas.
- Collaborated with the faculty to create promotion guidelines for non-tenure earning faculty; successfully promoted four faculty members in the first year of implementation (2015-16).
- Supported tenure and/or promotion of 13 faculty members.
- Developed a mentorship model for tenure-earning and non-tenure earning faculty. Addressed significant salary distribution issues; created rank-based compensation targets.
- Established annual faculty performance planning, evaluation and recognition system.
- Annually secured faculty travel and professional development support.
- Facilitated growth of extramurally funded faculty research by over 600%; all new faculty members engaged in funded and interdisciplinary research.

Student Success

- Established Office of Student Success with full-time director, coordinator and four professional advisors.
- Oversaw creation of a student lifecycle program that enhanced recruitment, retention and graduation rates.
- Initiated a unified scholarship application and award process.
- Increased merit-, need- and duty-based student financial assistance by 200%.
- Established undergraduate and masters-level research assistantship and peer mentor programs.

Academic Program Quality and Innovation

- Achieved full national accreditation for the BSW and MSW programs through 2019.
- Established one of VCU's first hybrid-online degree programs. Successfully enrolled five cohorts.
- Developed two articulation agreements with community colleges that reduce time to an undergraduate degree.
- Hired university's first Learning Spaces Specialist in partnership with the Office for Learning Innovation & Student Success and Office of Technology Services.
- Restructured Office of Field Education staffing model to use full-time, teaching faculty members.
- Increased School's involvement with interprofessional education including several initiatives with health sciences programs.

Strategic and Fiscal Planning

- Used existing resources to establish new offices with dedicated personnel: Student Success; Research; Development & Alumni Relations; Communications.
- Collaborated with the faculty in multi-year planning for curriculum transformation across all programs.
- Led ongoing planning process to align strategic and operational priorities with University strategic plan.
- Implemented a mission-based budgeting model.
- Expanded School's total budget ~17% by increasing development, tuition and research revenues.

- Created a school-wide planning and budget development/management process, including a Budget Advisory Committee comprised of faculty and staff.
- Increased median staff compensation by 15.2%.
- Increased faculty base compensation between 16.7% and 26.58% over three years with existing funds.
- Secured funding for School's internal research awards program.

Enrollment Management

- Set and met annual strategic School and program enrollment targets each year.
- Increased undergraduate enrollment by 16%.
- Implemented prior decision to close satellite campus; strategically recouped enrollment at main campus.

Staff Recruitment, Retention and Support

- Created six new staff positions to support research, student success, finance and academic programs.
- Supported the creation of the Staff Council.
- Led effort to establish of funded professional development plans for all staff members.
- Partnered with University Human Resources to establish university's first unit-wide supervisors training program; established supervisor development plans for each supervisor.

External Relations and Advancement

- Significantly enhanced development and alumni operations. From FY10 to FY16 increased gifts and pledges by 221% (largest gift ~$700K) and donors by 297%, more than doubled the number of endowed scholarships, and increased alumni engagement to ~9% from <1%.
- Raised 84% of School's comprehensive campaign goal by end of silent phase.
- Established school-funded, full-time Senior Director of Development.
- Worked with the Director to form School Comprehensive Campaign and Centennial Anniversary Committee.
- Directed creation of comprehensive strategic communications plan integrating all programs and activities.
- Oversaw redesign of school's website and creation of a multi-platform social media strategy.

Facilities

- Developed a resource plan for and oversaw a $1.5M renovation of the historic Raleigh Building.
- Oversaw planning and relocation of entire School to new, LEED Silver facility.
