

Camp Philosophy

The philosophy of the Golden Eagle Baseball/Softball Winter Camp is to provide a safe environment where the campers can learn the fundamentals of baseball and softball, participate in activities and feel that they have achieved a measure of success. Campers will be grouped upon sport, age, ability, physical maturity, and/or previous experience. All levels of skill and experience are welcome.

The Golden Eagles Sports Camp is designed for the camper who wants a day filled with fun, structured activities designed for improvement and a chance to make new friends.

Golden Eagle Camp Staff

Justin Beach, Camp Head Baseball Coach

Justin Beach was named head baseball coach in June of 2008 after one season as the interim head coach. Brockport has emerged as one of the top teams in the New York Region and Beach has continued the program's recent success in 2014, making the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) Tournament for the 12th time in 13 years.

Beach has led Golden Eagle teams to the NCAA Regional Tournament twice with trips in 2010 and 2011.

In 2014, Beach was named the SUNYAC Coach of the Year. He led the Golden Eagles to the SUNYAC Championship game and an overall record of 26-16. The team earned three All-Tournament Team selections, as well as three All-SUNYAC honors. Senior Dan Hurlimann was named All-SUNYAC First-Team and led the conference in home runs, putouts and double plays. Wesley Burghardt was also named to the first-team, recording a conference-high 55 total hits. Burghardt was also named All-Region by D3baseball.com and ABCA. Pitcher Bradley Westling, the Brockport top reliever this season, was named to the conference second-team after a strong year and the most saves in the conference.

Beach's overall record stands at 176-122-1 (.590 winning percentage) after six full seasons at the helm. Beach has earned the ECAC Upstate NY Coach of the Year award, two SUNYAC Coach of the Year awards, has coached 20 all-conference players, 15 American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) All-Region selections and pitcher Justin McCarthy was named an All-American in 2012. He has also coached three players who have gone on to play professional baseball.
