PUBLIC LAW 98-473—OCT. 12, 1984
98 STAT. 2125

“AUTHORIZATION OF APPROPRIATIONS”.

(b) Section 341(a) is amended by striking out “for each of the fiscal years” and all that follows through the period at the end thereof and inserting in lieu thereof “such sums as may be necessary for fiscal years 1985, 1986, 1987, and 1988.”

(c) Section 341(b) of the Runaway and Homeless Youth Act (42 U.S.C. 5751(b)) is amended by striking out “Associate”.

(d) Section 341 of the Runaway and Homeless Youth Act (42 U.S.C. 5751) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new subsection:

“(c) No funds appropriated to carry out the purposes of this title—

“(1) may be used for any program or activity which is not specifically authorized by this title; or

“(2) may be combined with funds appropriated under any other Act if the purpose of combining such funds is to make a single discretionary grant or a single discretionary payment unless such funds are separately identified in all grants and contracts and are used for the purposes specified in this title.”

(e) Part D of the Runaway and Homeless Youth Act (42 U.S.C. 5751) is redesignated as part C.

(f) Section 341 of the Runaway and Homeless Youth Act (42 U.S.C. 5757) is redesignated as section 331.

Subdivision D—Missing Children’s Assistance

ASSISTANCE RELATING TO MISSING CHILDREN

SEC. 660. The Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention Act of 1974 (42 U.S.C. 5601 et seq.) is amended by adding at the end thereof the following new title:

“TITLE IV—MISSING CHILDREN

“SHORT TITLE

“Sec. 401. This title may be cited as the Missing Children’s Assistance Act.

“FINDINGS

“Sec. 402. The Congress hereby finds that—

“(1) each year thousands of children are abducted or removed from the control of a parent having legal custody without such parent’s consent, under circumstances which immediately place them in grave danger;

“(2) many of these children are never reunited with their families;

“(3) often there are no clues to the whereabouts of these children;

“(4) many missing children are at great risk of both physical harm and sexual exploitation;

“(5) in many cases, parents and local law enforcement officials have neither the resources nor the expertise to mount expanded search efforts;

“(6) abducted children are frequently moved from one locality to another, requiring the cooperation and coordination of local, State, and Federal law enforcement efforts;
“(7) on frequent occasions, law enforcement authorities quickly exhaust all leads in missing children cases, and require assistance from distant communities where the child may be located; and
“(8) Federal assistance is urgently needed to coordinate and assist in this interstate problem.

Definitions

Sec. 403. For the purpose of this title—
“(1) the term ‘missing child’ means any individual less than 18 years of age whose whereabouts are unknown to such individual’s legal custodian if—
“(A) the circumstances surrounding such individual’s disappearance indicate that such individual may possibly have been removed by another from the control of such individual’s legal custodian without such custodian’s consent; or
“(B) the circumstances of the case strongly indicate that such individual is likely to be abused or sexually exploited; and
“(2) the term ‘Administrator’ means the Administrator of the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention.

DUTIES AND FUNCTIONS OF THE ADMINISTRATOR

Sec. 404. (a) The Administrator shall—
“(1) issue such rules as the Administrator considers necessary or appropriate to carry out this title;
“(2) make such arrangements as may be necessary and appropriate to facilitate effective coordination among all federally funded programs relating to missing children (including the preparation of an annual comprehensive plan for facilitating such coordination);
“(3) provide for the furnishing of information derived from the national toll-free telephone line, established under subsection (b)(1), to appropriate law enforcement entities;
“(4) provide adequate staff and agency resources which are necessary to properly carry out the responsibilities pursuant to this title;
“(5) analyze, compile, publish, and disseminate an annual summary of recently completed research, research being conducted, and Federal, State, and local demonstration projects relating to missing children with particular emphasis on—
“(A) effective models of local, State, and Federal coordination and cooperation in locating missing children;
“(B) effective programs designed to promote community awareness of the problem of missing children;
“(C) effective programs to prevent the abduction and sexual exploitation of children (including parent, child, and community education); and
“(D) effective program models which provide treatment, counseling, or other aid to parents of missing children or to children who have been the victims of abduction or sexual exploitation; and
“(6) prepare, in conjunction with and with the final approval of the Advisory Board on Missing Children, an annual comprehensive plan for facilitating cooperation and coordination among all agencies related to missing children.

(b) The Administrator shall—
“(1) establish and maintain an information clearinghouse designating—
“(A) to provide governments, public agencies, and individuals in locating, recovering, or providing protection to missing children;
“(B) to coordinate law enforcement efforts in locating, recovering, or providing protection to missing children;
“(C) to disseminate information and model missing child legislation; and
“(D) to provide training and information to law enforcement agencies, State and local agencies, and Federal, State, and local information clearinghouse designations.

“Sec. 405. (a) There is hereby created the Advisory Board on Missing Children (hereinafter in this section referred to as ‘Advisory Board’) which shall—
“(1) a law enforcement official;
“(2) an individual who has had administrative, judicial, or investigative experience in dealing with the law enforcement of missing children; and
“(3) the chief executive officer of a State; and
“(4) a law enforcement official;
“(5) the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation; and
“(6) 4 members of the public (including members of law enforcement agencies, parents of missing children, and other appropriate groups).

“Sec. 406. (a) The Administrator shall—
“(1) establish and maintain an information clearinghouse designating—
“(A) to provide governments, public agencies, and individuals in locating, recovering, or providing protection to missing children;
“(B) to coordinate law enforcement efforts in locating, recovering, or providing protection to missing children;
“(C) to disseminate information and model missing child legislation; and
“(D) to provide training and information to law enforcement agencies, State and local agencies, and Federal, State, and local information clearinghouse designations.

“Sec. 407. (a) The Administrator shall—
“(1) establish and maintain an information clearinghouse designating—
“(A) to provide governments, public agencies, and individuals in locating, recovering, or providing protection to missing children;
“(B) to coordinate law enforcement efforts in locating, recovering, or providing protection to missing children;
“(C) to disseminate information and model missing child legislation; and
“(D) to provide training and information to law enforcement agencies, State and local agencies, and Federal, State, and local information clearinghouse designations.

“Sec. 408. (a) The Administrator shall—
“(1) establish and maintain an information clearinghouse designating—
“(A) to provide governments, public agencies, and individuals in locating, recovering, or providing protection to missing children;
“(B) to coordinate law enforcement efforts in locating, recovering, or providing protection to missing children;
“(C) to disseminate information and model missing child legislation; and
“(D) to provide training and information to law enforcement agencies, State and local agencies, and Federal, State, and local information clearinghouse designations.

“Sec. 409. (a) The Administrator shall—
“(1) establish and maintain an information clearinghouse designating—
“(A) to provide governments, public agencies, and individuals in locating, recovering, or providing protection to missing children;
“(B) to coordinate law enforcement efforts in locating, recovering, or providing protection to missing children;
“(C) to disseminate information and model missing child legislation; and
“(D) to provide training and information to law enforcement agencies, State and local agencies, and Federal, State, and local information clearinghouse designations.

98 STAT. 2127

among all agencies and organizations with responsibilities related to missing children.

"(b) The Administrator, either by making grants to or entering into contracts with public agencies or nonprofit private agencies, shall—

"(1) establish and operate a national toll-free telephone line by which individuals may report information regarding the location of any missing child, or other child 13 years of age or younger whose whereabouts are unknown to such child’s legal custodian, and request information pertaining to procedures necessary to reunite such child with such child’s legal custodian;

"(2) establish and operate a national resource center and clearinghouse designed—

"(A) to provide technical assistance to local and State governments, public and private nonprofit agencies, and individuals in locating and recovering missing children;

"(B) to coordinate public and private programs which locate, recover, or reunite missing children with their legal custodians;

"(C) to disseminate nationally information about innovative and model missing children’s programs, services, and legislation; and

"(D) to provide technical assistance to law enforcement agencies, State and local governments, elements of the criminal justice system, public and private nonprofit agencies, and individuals in the prevention, investigation, prosecution, and treatment of the missing and exploited child case; and

"(3) periodically conduct national incidence studies to determine for a given year the actual number of children reported missing each year, the number of children who are victims of abduction by strangers, the number of children who are the victims of parental kidnapings, and the number of children who are recovered each year.

"(c) Nothing contained in this title shall be construed to grant to the Administrator any law enforcement responsibility or supervisory authority over any other Federal agency.

"ADVISORY BOARD

"Sec. 405. (a) There is hereby established the Advisory Board on Missing Children (hereinafter in this title referred to as the ‘Advisory Board’) which shall be composed of 9 members as follows:

"(1) a law enforcement officer;

"(2) an individual whose official duty is to prosecute violations of the criminal law of a State;

"(3) the chief executive officer of a unit of local government within a State;

"(4) a statewide elected officer of a State;

"(5) the Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation or the Director’s designee from within the Federal Bureau of Investigation; and

"(6) 4 members of the public who have experience or expertise relating to missing children (including members representing parent groups).
“(b) The Attorney General shall make the initial appointments to the Advisory Board not later than 90 days after the effective date of this title. The Advisory Board shall meet periodically and at the call of the Attorney General, but not less frequently than annually. The Chairman of the Advisory Board shall be designated by the Attorney General.

“(c) The Advisory Board shall—

“(1) advise the Administrator and the Attorney General in coordinating programs and activities relating to missing children which are planned, administered, or assisted by any Federal program;

“(2) advise the Administrator with regard to the establishment of priorities for making grants or contracts under section 406; and

“(3) approve the annual comprehensive plan for facilitating cooperation and coordination among all agencies and organizations with responsibilities relating to missing children and submit the first such annual plan to the President and the Congress not later than eighteen months after the effective date of this title.

“(d) Members of the Advisory Board, while serving away from their places of residence or regular places of business, shall be entitled to reimbursement for travel expenses, including per diem in lieu of subsistence, in the same manner as is authorized by section 5703 of title 5, United States Code, for persons employed intermittently in the Government service.

GRANTS

Sec. 406. (a) The Administrator is authorized to make grants to and enter into contracts with public agencies or nonprofit private organizations, or combinations thereof, for research, demonstration projects, or service programs designed—

“(1) to educate parents, children, and community agencies and organizations in ways to prevent the abduction and sexual exploitation of children;

“(2) to provide information to assist in the locating and return of missing children;

“(3) to aid communities in the collection of materials which would be useful to parents in assisting others in the identification of missing children;

“(4) to increase knowledge of and develop effective treatment pertaining to the psychological consequences, on both parents and children, of—

“(A) the abduction of a child, both during the period of disappearance and after the child is recovered; and

“(B) the sexual exploitation of a missing child;

“(5) to collect detailed data from selected States or localities on the actual investigative practices utilized by law enforcement agencies in missing children’s cases; and

“(6) to address the particular needs of missing children by minimizing the negative impact of judicial and law enforcement procedures on children who are victims of abuse or sexual exploitation and by promoting the active participation of children and their families in cases involving abuse or sexual exploitation of children.

PUBLIC LAW 98-473 OCT. 12, 1984

“(b) In considering grants, the Administrator shall give priority to—

“(1) have demonstrated—

“(A) locating and returning missing children;

“(B) providing for the needs of missing children and their families; or

“(C) conducting, or substantially utilizing, the Administrator shall establish ann program priorities for making grants under subparagraphs (A) and (B) of section 406 and, not less than once each six months, the Administrator shall publish in the Federal Register a statement of such program priorities.

AUTHORIZATION

Sec. 408. To carry out the provisions of this section, authorized to be appropriated such sums as may be necessary for fiscal year 1988.

Subdivision E
