FACULTY SENATE RESOLUTION CONCERNING ACADEMIC CALENDAR FOR 1968-69

ACADEMIC YEAR

It is recommended that in the development of the schedule for the 1968-69 academic year, no major change be made from the schedule for 1967-68. It is further recommended that:

1. As nearly as possible, the same number of each week day be included in the schedule (i.e., 14 Mondays, 14 Tuesdays, etc.)

2. There be no change in length of the academic semesters.

3. There be no change in the present manner of scheduling final examinations.

4. The dates for spring holiday be set for the Easter session or for mid-semester, in accordance with the preference of a majority of faculty, such preference to be determined by polling the faculty.
