FACULTY SPONSORS OF STUDENT ACTIVITIES

The policy regarding activity sponsors as stated under Article III-2, page 12, Faculty Handbook (1957) should be followed. It reads:

Faculty sponsors of student activities are responsible for advising student leaders and participants. They give assistance in planning activities and closely supervise the financial bookkeeping of the organization concerned. They are responsible for the group during official on-campus meetings.

The Senate recommends:

(1) That a system for faculty sponsors exist for all student organizations on this campus.

(2) That faculty sponsors for organizations which are primarily related to departmental interest, e.g., English Club, Harlequins, Radio Club, Science Club, Debate Club, etc., be approved or, if necessary, designated by the chairman of the respective departments.

(3) That faculty sponsors for non-departmental organizations and recreational activities be designated by members of the organizations concerned, and approved by the Dean of Students.

(4) That payment of the B.S.G. activity fee not be a prerequisite for sponsorship by a faculty member.

(5) That the details for implementation of the faculty sponsorship system be formulated by the Brockport Student Government with the approval of the Dean of Students.
