RESOLUTION OF EXPANDING EDUCATIONAL OPPORTUNITIES

Submitted to General Faculty Meeting,
April 14, 1969

Whereas, the State University College at Brockport is actively engaged in expanding educational opportunity through the Summer Start Program and other activities, and

Whereas, such programs are expected to increase in size and scope in the immediate future, and

Whereas, the College Council has appointed a Task Force on Special Curricular Study and Change to review ways in which curricular and extra-curricular activities can more properly reflect the contributions of various ethnic groups to American culture, and

Whereas, the success of such programs depends on the active support and involvement of the teaching faculty at Brockport, and

Whereas, the University Senate-sponsored Conference on Expanding Educational Opportunities, in Buffalo on March 30 - April 1, 1969, adopted a resolution calling for the allocation of five percent of local budgets to finance such programs and urging that all faculties take an active, specific part in the process of Expanding Educational Opportunities. Therefore, be it

Resolved, that the Faculty Senate of the State University College at Brockport appoint a committee composed of faculty and students to be known as the Committee on Expanding Educational Opportunity for the following purposes:

1. to develop and coordinate a volunteer program of tutorial services by faculty members for students in the Summer Start Program;

2. to examine the current and projected programs to determine whether alterations in academic procedures might provide added flexibility and accommodation to a variety of learning styles, particularly including wider development of experimental courses, for example, individualized study programs and interdisciplinary activities; and

3. to examine budget allocations and to make recommendations to the Budget Advisory Committee of the Faculty Senate on ways to assure adequate financing of such programs, particularly through committee participation in an advisory capacity in the recruitment of faculty especially qualified to serve in Expanding Educational Opportunity Programs.

The above resolution submitted by the teaching faculty representatives on the SUC Brockport Summer Start Steering Committee and delegates to the University Senate-sponsored conference in Expanding Educational Opportunity, Buffalo, New York, March 30 - April 1, 1969.
