PROPOSED REVISIONS OF GRADUATE POLICY

1. Applicants for the master's degrees shall usually be admitted directly to degree candidacy.

   Exceptions may be made when the department prefers to admit the applicant to graduate study only, pending completion of requirements of the degree program.

2. Degree requirements shall be completed within four years of the date of admission to degree candidacy.

   Exceptions may be made in the case of military service or other bona fide reason as determined by the department and/or the Dean for Graduate Studies.

3. Once admitted to degree candidacy or to graduate study each student is expected to maintain a reasonable continuity of study.

   Degree candidates are expected to be enrolled in a minimum of three credit hours each semester or to request a leave of absence be granted through the department and the Dean for Graduate Studies.

   Non-degree candidates are expected to be enrolled in a minimum of three credit hours each semester unless on a semester's leave of absence granted by the Dean for Graduate Studies.

   Exceptions may be made in the case of military service or other bona fide reason as determined by the department and/or the Dean for Graduate Studies.

4. The awarding of master's degrees "with honors" shall be discontinued by May 1970.
