Report of Faculty Senate ad hoc Committee on the Naming of Buildings

During the academic year 1968-69 the Faculty Senate established an ad hoc Committee on the Naming of Buildings. Meetings were held during that year and, with a change in student representation, the deliberations were continued during the Fall, 1969 semester. The following report represents the unanimous recommendations of the Committee consisting of:

Sherwin Terry (community)
Amy Dodd (student body)
Jim Webster (student body)
Pauline Haynes (faculty emeritus)
Wayne Dedman (faculty)

I. General Principles Agreed on by Committee as a basis of these recommendations.

1. In the naming of buildings, the order of priorities should be:
   a. Ease of identification and convenience.
   b. The honoring of someone.
   c. Appropriateness of name to use.

2. Names of buildings to be limited to those of local people associated with the community and/or the college.

3. In the case of two or more people with the same surname only one building will bear the name, but more than one person may be honored. (Drake Memorial Library is an example and the precedent.)

4. In order to implement the above, and especially #1, certain buildings should be re-named as well as un-named buildings receiving names.

II. Recommendations of Committee for the naming and re-naming of buildings.

A. Presently un-named buildings:

1. New College Union - Seymour (after James and William Seymour, two of the "founding fathers" of Brockport; the latter prominent in the affairs of the Collegiate Institute and of the Normal School)
2. Science Building #1 - Lennon (after William H. Lennon, long time professor of science and vice-principal of the Normal School (1865-1911))

3. Science Building #2 - David Eugene Smith (after David Eugene Smith, principal of Normal School 1936-1951, distinguished mathematician and long time professor at Columbia University)

4. Classroom Building - Holmes (after Mary Jane Holmes, Brockport popular authoress of the late 19th century, and her husband, Daniel Holmes, long Secretary of the Board of the Normal School)

5. Communication or Instructional Research Building - Edwards (after A. C. Edwards, long chairman of Social Science Department and William H. Edwards, long chairman of Social Science Department)

6. High Rise #2 - Bramley (after Herbert Bramley, President of Board of Trustees at the time the Normal School became a College)

7. High Rise #3 - Perry (after Charles F. Perry, professor and head of Education Department)

8. High Rise #4 (double one) - Mortimer (after Mary Mortimer, distinguished educator and first preceptress of Collegiate Institute, one of two Brockport-associated names in the Dictionary of American Biography)

9. Service Complex - Beach (after Horatio Beach, prominent Brockport figure and long time editor of the Brockport Republic. Also served in the U. S. consular service.

10. "Greek Revival" House - Burlingame House (after Herman G. Burlingame, professor of mathematics 1860-1891) whose home it was. The house was built by Htel Brockway.

11. New library (when completed) - Drake Memorial Library, transfer of name from present library structure

12. Administration (when completed) - Fuller (after Judge Jerome Fuller, long time president of Board of Collegiate Institute, prominent Brockport citizen)
B. Renaming of Presently Named Buildings

(These recommendations are made in an effort to correct some of the existing confusion and illogic in the present designations)

1. Old College Union - Lathrop (after Henry J. Lathrop, head of the Mathematics Department for a number of years. If in the future the Mathematics Department moves to another location into a building of its own, we recommend the name accompany them)

2. Present Morgan and Thompson Dormitories (call section of Stage #1) - Morgan (after Gifford Morgan, distinguished chairman of Board of Normal School and Miles Morgan, beloved professor of English)

3. Bramley-Neff (after Grace Neff, critic teacher, name to be moved from present East Hall)

4. East Hall-Thompson (after Alfred C. Thompson, principal of Normal School 1910-1936)

5. West Hall-MacFarlane (after Charles J. MacFarlane, principal of Normal School 1901-1916)

7. South Hall-MacVicar (after Malcolm MacVicar, first principal of the Normal School, distinguished educator, included in D.A.F.)

8. Theatre in Fine Arts Building - Claire Williams Theatre (after Claire Williams, critic teacher, author of professionally produced plays)

C. Recommendation Concerning "Surplus Names" or Names Removed from Existing Structures.

We earnestly recommend that the following, all names worthily associated with the College and the community, be applied to new dormitories or, other buildings as they become available:

Saunders
Shafer
Lane
Mans

Lowery
Reynolds
Chriswell
These are names we are suggesting be removed from dormitories for simplification and clarity. If it is necessary to distinguish between the various division or "doors" of Thompson, McLean, MacFarlane, and MacVicar Halls, we suggest they officially be designated Thompson I, II, III, etc. and that the student-residents give them any unofficial designation that their fancy dictates from time to time.
1. In the event of buildings, the order of prioritization should be:
   a. Land of institutional significance.
   b. Inhabitation.
   c. Immediate needs or requests.
   d. Buildings associated with local people or the university.
   e. Buildings associated with the college.

2. In the case of a conflict, building will have the priority, but when more than one person is involved, the common good须 be considered.

3. In the case of a conflict, buildings with immediate needs or requests will be prioritized.

VI. Major instructions for the naming and numbering of buildings:

1. Generally, on first name.
2. Buildings by group - John B. Jones and Daniel L. Smith.
3. Numbering system can be determined by designating faculties and departments.
4. The number of a building shall be the last name of the major ends.

5. The order of buildings may be determined by the date of approval and construction.
9. The construction of the new athletic facilities was also required to be completed in time for the college's fall semester.
