This is the accurate Proposed Revision of the Policies on Academic Probation and Dismissal.

Please disregard the previous document mailed to you.
DEFINITION OF GOOD STANDING

A student is in good standing if her/his cumulative quality point index is 2.0 or higher.

All entering students shall be deemed in good standing during their first semester.

ACADEMIC PROBATION AND DISMISSAL

Any student whose semester index falls below 1.5 will be dismissed from the College at the end of the semester in which the index is earned.

Regulations Governing Academic Probation and Dismissal

1. Any student whose cumulative index falls below 2.0 will be placed on academic probation.
2. Any student who is on probation and earns a semester index less than 2.0 shall be dismissed from the College.
3. Any student in her/his first semester on probation who earns a semester index of 2.0 or greater shall be granted one additional semester on probation if her/his cumulative index remains less than 2.0 at the end of the first semester on probation. Any student whose cumulative index after two semesters on probation remains below 2.0 will be dismissed.
4. Any student who is on probation may not enroll for more than 12 semester hours.

SELF-DEVELOPMENT

Any student who is on probation is expected to participate in a program of self-development under the guidance of Student Affairs.

NOTIFICATION OF DEFICIENT STUDENTS

No change in the time of semester grade reports. If a student is placed on academic probation, all students who are retained or probation, and all students who are academically dismissed from the College are to be fully notified in writing, as well the names of parents of the students involved. Failure to receive such notification because of circumstances beyond the control of the College shall not limit a student to removal from the College as a result of non-compliance.
Persons wishing to appeal dismissal from the University for academic reasons shall follow these procedures:

1. Immediately upon receipt of official notification of dismissal, submit a written Statement of Appeal to the office of the Vice President for Instruction and Curriculum.

2. The Statement of Appeal must:
   a. be received by the Office of the Vice President for Instruction and Curriculum by the date indicated in the official dismissal letter;
   b. include a narrative explaining the circumstances for dismissal or otherwise, which may justify continuation and successful completion of degree program;

The Office of the Vice President for Instruction and Curriculum will communicate Statements of Appeal and inform the applicants in writing:

1. of the date, time and place where an Academic Review Committee will consider the appeal, etc.

3. that the request for appeal has been received.

ACADEMIC REVIEW COMMITTEE

The Vice President for Instruction and Curriculum will forward the appeal to the appropriate Academic Review Committee. Each case necessitating an appeal is reviewed by a committee of the Academic Review Committee. At least two types of Academic Review Committees are established to consider the appeals of students who are dismissed for academic reasons:
