RESOLUTION
on Impact of Enrollment of Black Students
(federally-funded survey)

WHEREAS S.U.C. Brockport has been selected as one of four institutions in the country to participate in a federally-funded major study of the impact of increased enrollment by black students in predominantly white institutions and

WHEREAS Brockport has been identified by the survey team as a campus that could serve as a model for similar colleges throughout the country, and

WHEREAS the findings of such a study should be of considerable value educationally and socially,

WHEREFORE, BE IT RESOLVED THAT:

The Faculty Senate of S.U.C. Brockport urges the faculty to cooperate fully in this important educational function by filling in and returning promptly the questionnaire which will be distributed by April 25.
