STATE UNIVERSITY COLLEGE
Brockport, New York

Faculty Senate Meeting: 4/6/81
Agenda Item VII. C.

LONG RANGE PLANNING COMMITTEE:
Resolution on Establishing Security/Damage Deposits for Dormitory Residents

WHEREAS: The College annually expends thousands of dollars to repair damage caused by vandalism in the residence halls,
WHEREAS: The College, in repairing this type of damage, must reallocate monies from other programs or projects,
WHEREAS: The College is committed to improving living conditions in the residence facilities; and
WHEREAS: Students residing in off-campus housing routinely establish security/damage deposit accounts with landlords or rental agents,

THEREFORE be it resolved that the Faculty Senate request the College's Office of Residential Life develop a mechanism for requiring dormitory residents at the commencement of their periods of occupancy to establish security or damage deposit accounts.
