GRADUATE TRANSFER CREDIT

Existing Policy

A maximum of 12 semester hours of degree credits may be earned at other colleges and universities with the approval of the department. Six hours of degree credits may be earned, upon approval, at units outside the State University system and 12 hours may be transferred from within the State University system. Four quarter-hours transfer as three semester hours.

No course may be transferred in which a grade of less than B was received. Credits transferred from outside State University of New York are recorded CR. For courses transferred from institutions of State University of New York, letter grades are recorded.

Proposed Policy

A maximum of 12 semester hours of degree credits may be transferred from other colleges and universities with the approval of the department. Four quarter hours transfer as three semester hours.

No course may be transferred in which a grade of less than B was received. Transfer credits from other colleges and universities are recorded CR.
