PROPOSED DEFINITION OF
FULL-TIME GRADUATE STUDENT

A full-time graduate student at Brockport is one who:

a) is registered for 12 graduate credits per semester or

b) is registered for 9 graduate credits per semester with an assistentship or graduate resident directorship or

c) is engaged in full-time thesis research which:
   i) is part of an approved program of study;
   ii) requires effort which is the equivalent in Carnegie units of 12 credits of work;

   iii) has in his or her departmental file a letter from the department chairperson or graduate program coordinator, endorsed by the dean, indicating that said student is engaged in full-time thesis research for each semester or comparable summer period.
