Date Received by the Senate:
Resolution on Transition Program and Special Talent Program Admission

WHEREAS SUNY-College at Brockport is a public institution obligated to serve students who have the potential to perform at the college level, and

WHEREAS some students who do not meet the normal College admissions criteria do have the potential to perform at the College and to contribute to the College, and

WHEREAS the College is best served by attracting those students who have the greatest potential for succeeding in its programs, and

WHEREAS the College has limited resources to help such students perform up to their potential

BE IT RESOLVED, that beginning with the incoming freshmen class of 1989:

1. admission into the Transition Program be targeted so as to yield 175 students

2. as an indicator of potential success at Brockport, students who are enrolled in the Transition Program be qualified to enter either Communication Skills III or Quantitative Skills III during their first semester at Brockport

3. admission into the Special Talent Program be targeted so as to yield 50 students

4. as an indicator of potential success at Brockport, students who are admitted to the Special Talent Program be qualified to enter either Communication Skills III or Quantitative Skills III during their first semester at Brockport

5. students admitted into the Special Talent Program be under the direct sponsorship of a full-time faculty or staff member. Part-time faculty and staff will be permitted to sponsor Special Talent students with the approval of the appropriate dean.

Nothing in this proposal relates to the Educational Opportunity Program.
