Revision of the Foreign Language Requirement for General Education

That the foreign language requirement be the successful completion of the equivalent of one year (two semesters of the same language) of college study, with provisions for the possibility of having that requirement partially or totally met through an appropriate level of performance in foreign language study completed in high school.

The requirement may be met in any one of the following ways:
1. By successful completion of the second semester of a beginning level foreign language course (112);
2. By achievement of the appropriate score for that level on the CLEP or AP exam;
3. By participation in a program of overseas study of at least five weeks duration and in which the language of instruction is a foreign language; or
4. By successful completion of a first semester intermediate level foreign language course (211).
