Resolution #8, 2002-2003

Resolution Regarding Faculty Senate Observer Consultants
Submitted by the Personnel Committee

Whereas:

1. The campus climate has changed since the 1983 institution of the Faculty Senate Observer Consultants (FSOCs), and
2. The Faculty Senate is primarily a policy-recommending body, not a policy-enforcing body, and
3. Middle States has endorsed our Self-Study recommendation that faculty time commitments outside of class be reduced, and
4. FSOCs as constituted, are non-voting members of search committees, and the FSOC does not fulfill a useful role on search committees, and
5. Search committee appointments are made and approved by the appropriate APT Committee, dean, vice-president, and/or the president,

Upon review and recommendation of:

• The Director of Human Resources, and
• The Affirmative Action Officer, and
• The Faculty Senate Personnel Policies Committee,

Therefore be it resolved that:

1. The FSOC position be eliminated effective immediately, and that
2. The Affirmative Action Officer continue to meet with committee members at the first search committee meeting to ensure that proper procedures are established and followed for all searches, and that
3. On searches for President, Vice-Presidents, Deans, Campus-wide Directors, and Human Resource Director, Affirmative Action Officer, Associate Vice Presidents and Assistant Vice Presidents, at least one Faculty Senate Representative appointed by the Faculty Senate President or said president’s designee to serve on the search committees with voting privileges, effective immediately, and that
4. After one year this policy will be evaluated by the Faculty Senate Personnel Committee, Affirmative Action Officer and Director of Human Resources as to its effectiveness. At that time a recommendation will be made to the Faculty Senate for continuation or revision of this policy.
