The Department of Political Science would like to drop the Stat./Methodology requirement from our minor. All other requirements remain the same.

Old Minor

Minor in Political Science

The political science academic minor program requires 18 credits in political science courses, including two of the four required lower-division courses for majors, either of the two required upper-division courses for majors, and nine additional credits in upper-division political science courses. Every political science minor must have a faculty advisor who must be consulted at least once each semester.

New Minor
