Re: Elimination of Track Two in the Spanish Minor

Executive Summary: In order to clarify our major and minor in Spanish the Dept. of Foreign Languages and Literatures wishes to eliminate Track Two of the Spanish Minor. If any student is going into teaching, a minor in Bilingual-Multicultural Education will not suffice for certification. The student should be in the major with the Bilingual Education Extension for Certification. We do not know of any student who has opted for this Track two. It is more confusing than helpful. In addition it requires 24 credits, and since everyone accepts that a minor is 18 credits, it stands to reason that nobody wants to spend that much time on a minor. We are simply modernizing our program to meet contemporary realities. We believe that one minor in Spanish for 18 credits is sufficient.

The only change is the elimination of Track Two of the Minor.

The Chair approves fully, and the Dean has approved the Major so I assume that he will certainly support this change.

Transfer students will now have a much easier time understanding the Spanish minor.
