Re: Reduction of credits for 39-credit advanced standing master of social work curriculum

Attached you will find a proposal outlining a request to eliminate one 3-credit elective requirement within the current Master of Social Work 39-credit advanced-standing curriculum. The proposal format follows SUNY guidelines and includes letters of support from Dr. Douglas Scheidt, Dean, School of Education and Human Services, and Dr. Susan Seem, Assistant to the Provost for Graduate Education and Scholarship. Should you need any further information about this proposal, please feel free to contact me at 395-5506, or by email, jdauenha@brockport.edu. Thank you for taking the time to review this request.
1) The name of the program (by registered title), the award, and the SED program code number from the SED Inventory of Registered Programs.

Name: Greater Rochester Collaborative Master of Social Work Program; Award: MSW (39-Credit Advanced Standing Program); SED program code: 22215

2) The rationale or need for the change. The most compelling rationale is grounded academically, often arising from the results of ongoing assessment, changes in quality standards, or comparative market information.

The GRC MSW Program Faculty proposes a curriculum change in the program’s 39 Credit Advanced Standing Curriculum. The following is a summary of the curriculum changes proposed.

1. Reducing of the total number of Advanced Standing credits from 39 to 36 credits by eliminating one 3-credit elective course.

   In completing a market analysis of MSW programs across New York State, the GRC program is currently requiring more credits than comparable advanced standing programs. For instance, the University at Buffalo requires 35 credits, Syracuse University: 36 credits, Binghampton University: 35 credits, and Stonybrook University: 36 credits.

   To maintain curricular standards, New York State licensing requirements, and remain competitive with similar programs, the Faculty determined that eliminating one of three (3-credit) required elective courses would achieve this goal. In other words, this proposal would reduce total elective credits from 9 to 6. This elimination would occur during the summer semester.

3) Curriculum outline of the current program and of the proposed revised curriculum, with changes in program (e.g., courses added, deleted) clearly noted.

To: "Dauenhauer, Jason" <jdauenha@brockport.edu>

I support the proposal to reduce the number of credits in the MSW Advanced Standing program from 39 to 36 credits by eliminating one elective course. This will reduce the burden on our graduate students without affecting the core curriculum or student learning outcomes.

Re: Reducing the total number of advanced standing master of social work curriculum

I am in full support of the reduction of credits from 39 to 36 credits in the Master of Social Work Advanced Standing curriculum. The reduction in credit allows the MSW program to be truly competitive with other similar programs in western New York. Additionally, the reduction does not impact the quality or license eligibility of the program.
