Grade changes should be restricted to correcting errors in the instructor’s calculation of a student’s final grade. If the grade change is justified for a reason other than instructor error, a written explanation for the change is required on the College’s Request for Change of Grade form and should be submitted to the Office of Registration and Records.